Ruth

1-4

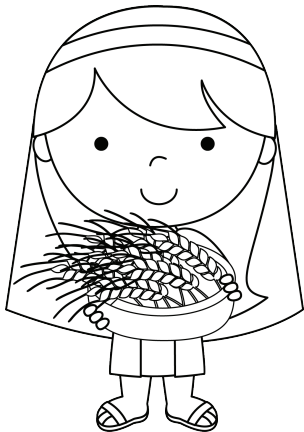

Naomi's husband and sons died.

Naomi told her daughters-in-law she was returning to Judah and they should return to their families.

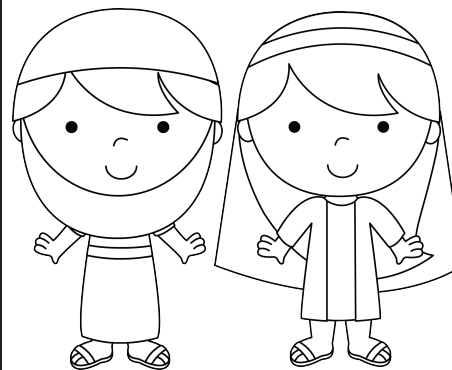

Ruth refused and went with Naomi.

Ruth worked in the fields gathering leftover barley for something to eat.

A relative of Naomi named Boaz saw Ruth in the field and was impressed by her taking care of Naomi.

Ruth and Boaz got married.

Ruth had a son named Obed, who was the grandfather of King David.
